Application Process

Intrepid Theatre requires all employees to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 at this time, and the successful candidate will need to show proof of vaccination before an offer of employment is made. The hiring and interview panel is Emmett (Producer) and Jane (Associate Producer). Anyone applying can request a pre-application informational chat if they would like, please note this is not an interview it is an opportunity for the candidate to ask clarifying questions before they apply. All applicants will be sent an email letting them know the status of their application; all of those who are offered an interview will be notified of hiring decisions. To apply, submit a resume and either a one-page cover letter, or an up to 5 minute video or voice recording to: jobs@intrepidtheatre.com. If you are applying for more than one position, please indicate that in your cover letter, video, or voice recording (no need to submit separate applications).

Other Information for applications

Preamble

At Intrepid, we realize that applying for jobs can be intimidating. As a company that regularly works with emerging and developing artists through mentorship, we know that someone, who may not have the exact skills or education posted, can learn and incorporate their own past experience and knowledge to the position. We acknowledge that not everyone has had the access or opportunity to acquire the skills and experience outlined in the job requirement. If you feel that you don't meet the exact skills and experience listed below but are excited and intrigued at the opportunity, we encourage you to apply! Let us know what has drawn you to the post and what you personally can bring to the position. Some past experiences that might seem like they are not relevant can be exactly what is needed.

We look forward to hearing about you and thanks for wanting to work with us!
