

Accessibility Report for Ducks

For people with mobility issues, getting into the church is quite easy. There is an excellent ramp on the west side of the building (see picture below) that will take people right into the main hall and then the auditorium.

Once inside, there is plenty of space in which to park wheelchairs and because most of the seats are chairs, we can easily modify the seating arrangement to accommodate everyone in the audience. The upper balcony is not wheelchair accessible.

