About

Intrepid Theatre runs the Intrepid Studio. This is also the location of Fringe Club and the Fringe Festival Box Office. Throughout the year, we use it for our festivals: OUTstages, Incoming, and the Victoria Fringe Festival, as well as presentations of shows by touring artists. It seats up to 45 people. This is where the Fringe Club and Fringe Box Office are set up.

We also rent the studio to various companies and groups who do their own shows, including theatre, comedy, and dance. Sometimes people rent Intrepid Studio for other purposes, such as rehearsals and film shoots.

Location

Intrepid Studio is located at 2-1609 Blanshard Street, Victoria, BC, ləkʷəŋən territory, at the corner of Fisgard and Blanshard.

Entering the Theatre

Inside the theatre is where the show will take place

Seating will be on the risers to the right hand side as you enter the theatre.

All shows try to start on time. Some artists are alright with latecomers, while others are not. Please check intrepidtheatre.com/shows for more information.

Exiting the Theatre

As the studio is an intimate space, please only leave the theatre if you must during a performance. The Front of House Manager or performance company representative will re-seat you at an appropriate time. To exit the theatre, return the exact same way you came in. If the lobby is busy or you need assistance, a volunteer or staff will be there to assist.

There are TWO emergency exits. Through the front doors, and behind the audience on the opposite side of the theatre space as the entrance doors. In an emergency situation, staff & volunteers will be able to indicate an exit. The official muster point is the parking lot outside the front entrance.

The Stage

The stage is proscenium, meaning the audience sits on one side, and the stage faces directly towards them.

Unless specified otherwise, the show will take place entirely in front of the audience.

There may be set pieces, props, technical equipment, or even performers onstage prior to the show.

Because this is a small theatre, you should expect to be much closer to the performers than in a larger theatre.

Washrooms

There are two single-user, gender-neutral washrooms to the right of the theatre. The left-most washroom is accessible, and has a grab bar.

During the Show

At the show start time, a Fringe staff member will talk for a few minutes to welcome the audience (called the front of house speech) and give some information about the show. They will mention any and all elements of the show that audience members could be sensitive to, like haze, strobe lighting, loud noises, etc. and any content warnings about material in the show that could be triggering or upsetting.

We try to start all shows on time. Some shows may allow latecomers, some may allow audiences to come and go throughout the show, and some may not admit latecomers at all—it varies from show to show. See individual show details at intrepidtheatre.com/shows.

During the show, the performers will usually be on the stage, but may be in the audience area too. Any interaction with audience members will be prefaced in the front of house speech, and performers will seek consent before any interaction takes place.

At the end of the show, the performers will bow while the audience claps. Some patrons choose to wave their hands in the air should they not want to clap due to noise, and some choose to cover their ears if needed.

After the Show

People sometimes thank the artist or ask them questions afterward. The artist will let audiences know if they want to chat outside the theatre or inside depending on how much they have to pack up. They might share further info about their show or how to get in touch with them in the future.

Artists also sometimes have merchandise for sale on the stage or in the lobby.

When the show is over, you will exit the theatre into the lobby through the same doors you came through. The aisles may be busy while everyone is leaving their seats. From the lobby, exit through the main front doors (push to open), and you'll be back on Fisgard Street.

We hope you enjoy your visit!
